

25 YEARS LATER
THE DAYTON AGREEMENT AND THE EUROPEAN PATHWAY FOR BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA

Introductory remarks by

H.E. Luigi Di Maio
Minister of Foreign Affairs of Italy
H.E. Bisera Turković
Minister of Foreign Affairs of BiH

H.E. Olivér Várhegyi
Commissioner for European Neighborhood
Policy and Enlargement Negotiations
H.E. Dunja Mijatović
Commissioner for Human Rights,
Council of Europe

FRIDAY
18.12.2020
15:00 - 18:30

On Zoom and streaming
on Facebook

@ItalyinBiH

Chairperson:

Nathalie Tocci,

Institute for International Affairs - IAI, Rome

I. SESSION

GROUPS, INDIVIDUALS, TERRITORY: UNTYING THE KNOTS

1. Origins of the Concept of 'Constituent Peoples': from Socialist Federalism to Ethno-Federalism?
Mitja Žagar, Institute for Ethnic Studies, Ljubljana

2. BiH as a Multi-National State:
Constituent Peoples and Territory in the Dayton Constitution
Joseph Marko, University of Graz

Discussants:

Maja Sahadžić, University of Antwerp
Goran Marković, University of East Sarajevo

Q&A FROM THE PUBLIC

II. SESSION

BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA AND THE INTEGRATION PROCESSES FROM DAYTON TO THE EU

3. Guaranteeing Individual Rights while Accommodating
Vital Group Interests: European Standards from ECHR and FCNM
Petra Roter, University of Ljubljana

4. Economic Integration and Internal Market: EU and BiH Compared
Fikret Čaušević, University of Sarajevo

5. EU Values and Priorities for Bosnia and Herzegovina and Its Constitution: How To Move Forward?
Jens Woelk, University of Trento

Discussants:

Asim Mujkić, University of Sarajevo
Senada Šelo Šabić - IRMO, Zagreb
Tatjana Sekulić, University of Milano - Bicocca

Q&A FROM THE PUBLIC

Closing remarks:

Amb. Johann Sattler
EUSR in BiH
Amb. Edin Dilberović
Direction for EU Integration, BiH - Director
Amb. Nicola Minasi
Embassy of the Republic of Italy